SERVICE

Personal service of notice of appeal

1.

-(a) Every Notice of Appeal shall, subject to the provisions of Order 2 Rules 7, 8 and 9, be served personally; Provided that if the Court is satisfied that the notice of appeal has in fact been communicated to the Respondent, no objection to the hearing of the appeal shall lie on the ground that the notice of appeal was not served personally.
(b) Except as may be otherwise provided in these Rules or in any other written law, it shall not be mandatory for notices, orders, summonses, warrants or other processes of the Court to be served personally.

Service of Notice on Parties mentioned.

The registry of the court below shall, after the notice of appeal has been filed, cause to be served a true copy thereof upon each of the parties mentioned in the notice of appeal but it shall not be necessary to serve any party not directly affected :
Provided that the Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person claiming to be affected, direct notice to be served on all or any parties to the action or other proceeding or upon any person not a party and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may be just and make such order(s) as might have been made if the persons served without notice had been originally parties to the appeal.

Notice of Appeal and Address of Service.

Where in any proceeding in the court below a party has given an address for service, notice of appeal from any decision made under such proceeding may be served on such party at such address for service, and notice of any application preparatory or incidental to any such appeal, may be served in like manner at any time before the date on which the Respondent gives notice of his address for service in accordance with the immediately following Rule.

Respondent's Notice of Address for Service.

- (1) Every person who by virtue of service on him of a notice of appeal becomes a Respondent to any appeal or intended appeal shall within thirty days after service on him of the notice of appeal file twenty copies with the registrar of the court below notice of a full and sufficient address for service in such number of copies as the said registrar shall require. The registrar of the court below shall forthwith send a copy of the notice of address to the Registrar and shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the Appellant.
(2) Such notice may be signed by the Respondent or his legal representative.
(3) If any Respondent fails or omits to file such notice of address for service it shall not be necessary to serve on him any other proceeding in the appeal or any notice of hearing thereof.

Address of Service.

Any reference in these Rules to an address for service means a physical or postal address within the Federal Republic of Nigeria or an electronic mail address or a facsimile number or telephone number or any other mode of communication as may become available to where notices and other processes, which are not required to be served personally, may be left or sent or posted or transmitted.

Endorsement of Address of Service.

Where under these Rules, any notice or other process is required to have an address for service endorsed on it; it shall not be deemed to have been properly filed unless such address has been endorsed on it.

Directions as to Service of Notice of Appeal.

7.

The Court may in any case direct that the notice of appeal be serve on any party to the proceedings in the court below on whom it has not been served, or on any person not party to those proceedings.

Directions as to service of Respondent's Notice.

In any case in which the Court directs that the notice of appeal shall be served on any party or person, the Court may also direct that any Respondent's notice shall be served on him.

Effect of direction as to Service.

9.

The Court may in any appeal where it gives a direction under Rules 12 and 13 of this Order-
(a) postpone or adjourn hearing of the appeal for such period and on such terms as may be just ; and
(b) give such judgment and make such order on the appeal as might have been given or made if the persons served in pursuance of the direction had originally been parties.

Mode of Service.

Where under these Rules any person has given an address for service, any notice or other process, which is not required to be served personally, shall be sufficiently served upon him if:

- (a) left at that address, or
- (b) sent by registered post to that address and in which case if the date of service by post is material, Section 26 of the Interpretation Act shall apply, or
- (c) transmitted by electronic means to the electronic mail address or facsimile number or, telephone number or any other mode of electronic communication.

Change of Address of Party.

11.

Any party to an appeal or intended appeal may change his address for service at any time, by filing and serving on all other parties to the appeal or intended appeal, notice of such change.

Notification of Change of Address.

12.

Any person desiring to change his address for service shall notify the Registrar and shall also communicate the new address to all other parties to the appeal.

Address of Legal Practitioner.

13.

Where any person has given the address of a Legal Practitioner as his address for service and the Legal Practitioner is not, or has ceased to be instructed by him for the purpose of the proceedings concerned, it shall be the duty of the Legal Practitioner to inform the Registrar as soon as may be practicable that he is not or no longer authorised to accept service on behalf of such person, and if he omits to do so he may be ordered to personally pay any costs occasioned thereby.

Ex-Officio Service.

Where a Minister or Commissioner, or the Attorney-General, or the Director of Public Prosecutions, or any other public officer of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or of a State thereof is a party ex-officio or as representing the Federal or a State Government, as the case may be, in any proceedings in the Court, whether civil or criminal, any notice or other document may be served on him by leaving it at or by sending it by registered post to his chambers or office and service in this manner shall be as effective as if it were personal service.

Service in accordance with State Service Law
15.

Where any document is required by these Rules to be served personally, it shall be sufficiently served if it is served in the manner prescribed by law for the personal service of a writ of summons issued by the High court having jurisdiction in the State in which service is to be effected and if it appears to the Court that for any reason personal service cannot be conveniently effected, the Court shall have the same power as that High court to direct that service be effected in some other way.

Service outside Jurisdiction.

-(1) Where any person out of the jurisdiction of the Court is a necessary or proper party to an appeal before the Court and it is necessary to serve him with the notice of appeal or other document relating to the appeal, the Court may allow service of the notice of appeal or such other document out of the jurisdiction.
(2) Every application for an order for leave to serve a notice of appeal or other document on a person out of the jurisdiction shall be supported by affidavit or otherwise showing in what place or country such a person is or probably may be found, and the grounds upon which the application is made.
(3) Any order granting leave to effect service out of the jurisdiction shall prescribe the mode of service, and shall limit a time within which such party may acknowledge such a service, such a time to depend on the place or country where or within which the notice or document is to be served, and, the Court may receive an affidavit or statutory declaration of such service having been effected as prima facie evidence thereof.

- (2) Where the Court grants the above application, an Order as in Form 14 in the Second Schedule shall be served upon such witness specifying the time and place at which to attend for such purpose.
- (3) Such Order may be made on the application at any time by the Appellant or Respondent, but if the Appellant is in custody and not legally represented the application shall be made by him in Form 15 in the Second Schedule.
- (4) Where the Court orders the examination of any witness conducted otherwise than before the Court itself, such Order shall specify the person appointed as examiner to take and the place of taking such examination and the witness or witnesses to be examined thereat.
- (5) The Registrar shall furnish to the person appointed to take such examination any documents or exhibits and any other material relating to the said appeal as and when requested to do so. Such documents, exhibits and other material shall after examination has been concluded be returned by the examiner, together with any deposition taken by him under this Rule to the Registrar.
- (6) When the examiner has appointed the day and time for the examination he shall request the Registrar to give notice thereof to the Appellant and Respondent and their Legal Representatives, if any, and when the Appellant is in prison, to the prison authority. The Registrar shall cause to be served on every witness to be examined a notice as in Form 16 in the Second Schedule.
- (7) Every witness examined before an Examiner under this Rule shall give his evidence upon oath or affirmation to be administered by such Examiner, except where any such witness if giving evidence as a witness at a trial on information need not be sworn.
- (8) The examination of every such witness shall be taken in the form of a deposition and unless otherwise ordered shall be taken in private. The caption in Form 17 in the Second Schedule shall be attached to any such deposition.
- (9) Where any witness shall receive an order or notice to attend before the Court or an Examiner, the Registrar may, if it appears, to him necessary so to do pay to such witness a reasonable sum for his expenses.
- (10) The Appellant and Respondent, or their Legal Representatives, shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be entitled to be present at and take part in any examination of any witness to which this Rule relates.

Proceeding on Reference

When an order of reference is made by the Court to a special commissioner, the question to be referred, and the person to whom as special commissioner the same shall be referred, shall be specified in such order. The Court may in such order or by giving directions as and when they from time to time shall think right, specify whether the Appellant or Respondent or any person on their behalf may be present at any examination or investigation or at any stage thereof as may be ordered, and specify any and what powers of the Court may be delegated to such special commissioner, and may require him from time to time to make interim reports to the Court upon the question referred to him and may, if the Appellant is in custody, give leave to him to be present at any stage of such examination or investigation and give the necessary directives to the prison authority accordingly, and may give directions to the Registrar that copies of any report made by such special commissioner shall be furnished to the Appellant and Respondent.

Notice of Final determination (Criminal Forms 18, 19, 20 or 21).

-(1) On the final determination of any appeal or, of any application to the Court, the Registrar shall give to the Appellant, if he be in custody and has not been present at such final determination, and to the Respondent and the prison authority, notice of such determination in Form 18, 19, 20 or 21 under the Second Schedule, as the case may be.
(2) In any case of an appeal in relation to a conviction involving sentence of death, the Registrar shall on receiving notice of appeal, send copies thereof to the Permanent Secretary to the appropriate Federal or State Ministry, for the information of the authority responsible for advising the President or the Governor of a State, as the case may be, on the exercise of the prerogative mercy, to the Respondent and to the prison authority.

-(1) The Registrar at the final determination of an appeal shall notify in such manner as he thinks most convenient to the registrar of the court below the decision of the Court in relation thereto, and also any orders directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.
(2) The registrar of the court below shall on receiving notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the records of such court.

Return of Original Deposition, etc.
24.

Upon the final determination of an appeal by the Court for purposes of which the Registrar has obtained from the registrar of the below any original depositions, exhibits; information, inquisition, plea or documents, usually kept by the said registrar or forming part of the record the court below, the Registrar shall, after five (5) years, cause the same to be, returned to the registrar of the court below.

Service of Record of appeal to the Supreme Court.
25.

-(1) Where there is a further appeal to the Supreme Court, the Registrar shall as soon as possible after the compilation of the Record Appeal serve upon every Appellant who has duly given a notice of appeal paid the fees fixed by the Registrar to cover the cost of Record of the Appeal a copy of the record.

(2) The Record of Appeal may be served upon the Appellant in any manner prescribed by these Rules for the service of notice or other documents relating to an appeal.
(3) The Registrar shall thereafter cause to be served upon every Respondent in the appeal who has filed an address for service a copy of the Record of Appeal.

Certification of Service and Transmission of Record to Supreme Court (Criminal Form 22).
26.

-(1) Within fourteen days after a record has been served upon an Appellant, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that he has served the Record of Appeal upon every such Appellant. The certificate of service shall be in Criminal Form 22 or to like effect.
(2) In addition to the requirements of Order 7 Rule 4 of the Supreme Court Rules, the Registrar shall as soon as the record and notice of compilation of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court have been served on the Appellant and the Respondent, as the case may be, transmit to the Supreme Court a certificate that a copy of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court has been served on the parties to the Appeal.

ORDER 18

APPEALS FROM COURTS MARTIAL AND TRIBUNALS

Notice of Appeal and other Notices .
1.

PART IV

APPEALS FROM COURTS MARTIAL AND TRIBUNALS

-(1) A person desiring to appeal to the Court against any decision of the court below shall commence his appeal by or sending to the registrar of the court below or other person or body imbued with or who performs such functions and powers as the registrar of a regular court a notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given, as the case may be, in the form of such notice respectively set forth as forms 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 or 7 in the Second Schedule to these Rules.

(2) A person sending any notice or notices under this Order shall answer the questions and comply with the requirements set forth therein.
(3) The Court may of its own motion or on the application of the Appellant amend the notice or grounds of appeal and may grant leave to the Appellant to argue additional or amended grounds of appeal : Provided that, if, in the opinion of the Court, due notice of such amended or additional grounds of appeal to the Respondent is necessary but had not been given, the Court may adjourn the appeal or make such order(s) as it may deem fit in the circumstances.

Signing of Notice of Appeal and other Notices.

-(1) Every notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given, shall be signed by the Appellant himself or his Legal Representative, except as stipulated under sub-rule (3) of this rule.

(2) Any notice or other document which is required or authorised to be given or sent shall be deemed to be duly given or sent if forwarded by registered post or electronic means addressed to the person to whom such notice or other document is so required or authorised to be given or sent.

(3) Where an Appellant or any other person authorised or required to give or send any notice of appeal or notice of any application is unable to write, he may affix his mark thereto in the presence of a witness who shall attest the same and thereupon such notice shall be deemed to be duly signed by such Appellant.

When Appeal is brought.

An appeal shall be deemed to have been brought when the notice of appeal has been filed in the registry of the court below or the Registry of the Court .

Applications for Extension of Time.

-(1) An application to the Court for an extension of time within which notices may be given shall be in Form 7 in the Second Schedule to these Rules. Every person making an application for such extension of time shall send to the Registrar of the Court, together with the proper Form of such application, a Form duly filled, of notice of appeal, or of notice of application for leave to appeal, or of notice of application for extension of time to appeal appropriate to the ground or grounds upon which he desires to question his conviction or sentence, as the case may be.

(2) Where the Court has, on a notice of application for leave or extension of time to appeal duly sent and in the Form provided under these Rules, given an Appellant leave to appeal, it shall not be necessary for such Appellant to give any notice of appeal but the notice of application for leave to appeal to appeal shall in such a case be deemed to be a notice of appeal.

Certificate of Conviction : When Registrar not to issue.

The registrar of the court below shall not issue, under any law authorising him so to do, a certificate of conviction of any person convicted in the court below if a notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of extension of time to appeal is given, until the determination or abandonment of such notice.

Record of Appeal.

- (1) When-
- (a) the registrar of the court below has received a notice of appeal or a notice of application to the Court for leave to appeal or for extension of time within which such notice shall be given ; or
- (b) the Court has granted leave to appeal, the registrar of the court below shall, within 60 days of the filing of the notice of appeal, prepare the Record of Appeal in the manner hereinafter prescribed and forward to the Registrar either seven copies thereof together with, where electronic devices were used for the production of the record, a copy of such electronic device used duly and carefully preserved, or twenty copies of the record. He shall also forward the original exhibits in the case as far as practicable and any original depositions, information, inquisition, plea, or other documents usually kept by him, or forming part of the record of the court below together with the originals of any recognisances entered into or any other documents filed in connection with the appeal or application.
- (2) The Court may allow the return of any document to any party pending the hearing of the appeal and subject to such conditions as it may impose.
- (3) The Record of Appeal in appeals or applications relating to appeals from the court below shall contain legibly typed or printed copies of the following items arranged in this order-
- (a) the index;
- (b) the charge or information ;
- (c) proof of evidence ;
- (d) notes of evidence and minutes of the proceedings: Provided that if a shorthand note of the hearing has been taken, a copy of the transcript thereof may be included, either in addition to or in substitution of the Judge's notes, as he may direct ;
- (e) the judgment or any additional ground or explanation thereof;
- (f) the proceedings on or after sentence in so far as not included in the notes of hearing or minutes of proceedings;
- (g) all documentary exhibits put in at the trial including depositions read in consequence of the absence of a witness: Provided that in the cases of books of accounts or other documents of great length, extracts of the relevant portions thereof only shall be included;
- (h) the notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of application for extension of time in which such notice shall be given.
- (4) It shall not be necessary for the Record of Appeal to contain copies, of any recognisances entered into or documents filed in connection with the appeal or application other than those set out in sub-rule (1) of this Rule unless the court below shall otherwise direct.

Fees.

- (1) The fees set out in the Third Schedule shall be taken and paid upon every appeal under this order.
- (2) The Court or the court below may waive in whole or in part the payment of any fees or the making of any deposit.
- (3) Fees shall not be payable in appeals against death sentences, capital offences or where an Appellant is granted legal aid.

Bail, Fines and Restitution.

- (1) Where the Court or the court below admits an Appellant to bail pending the determination of his appeal on an application by him duly made, such Court shall specify the amounts in which the Appellant and his surety or sureties (unless such Court directs that no surety is required) shall be bound by recognisance and shall direct, if it thinks fit so to do, before whom the recognisance of the Appellant and his surety or sureties (if any) may be taken.
- (2) In the event of the court below not making any special Order or giving any special directions under this Rule, the recognisance of the Appellant and of his surety or sureties (if any) may be taken before the Registrar.
- (3) The recognisance provided for in this Rule shall be in Forms 8 and 9 in the Second Schedule to these Rules.
- (4) The registrar of the court below shall forward the recognisance of the Appellant and his surety or sureties to the Registrar.
- (5) An Appellant who has been admitted to bail shall be personally present at each and every hearing of his appeal and at the final determination thereof. The Court may in the event of such Appellant not being present at any hearing of his appeal, if it thinks right so to do, decline to consider the appeal, and may proceed summarily to dismiss the same and may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the Appellant in Form 10 in the Second Schedule: Provided that the Court may in its discretion, given the circumstances of each given case, consider the appeal in his absence, or make such other Order as it deems fit.
- (6) When an Appellant is present before the Court, the Court may, on an application made by any person or, if it thinks right so to do without any application, make an order admitting the Appellant to bail, or revoke or vary any such order previously made, or enlarge from time to time the recognisance of the Appellant or of his sureties or substitute any other surety for a surety previously bound as it thinks right.
- (7) At any time after an Appellant has been admitted on bail, the Court, or where the Appellant was released on bail by the court below, the Court may, if satisfied that it is in the interest of justice so to do, revoke the order admitting him to bail and issue a warrant in Form 10 in the Second Schedule of these Rules.

Fines.

-(1) Where a person has, on his conviction, been sentenced to payment of a fine, and in default of payment to imprisonment, and such person remains in custody in default of payment of the fine, he shall be deemed, for purposes of appeal, to be a person sentenced to imprisonment.

(2) An Appellant who has been sentenced to payment of a fine, and has paid the same or part thereof in accordance with sentence, shall, in the event of his appeal being successful, be entitled, subject to any order of the Court, to the refund of the sum or any part thereof so paid by him.

Restitution.

-(1) Where, upon the trial of a person entitled to appeal against his conviction, an order of restitution of any property to any person has been made by the Court, the person in whose favour or against whom the order of restitution has been made, and with the leave of the Court, any other person, shall, on the final hearing by the Court of an appeal against his conviction on which such order of restitution was made, be entitled to be heard by the Court before any order annulling or varying such order of restitution is made.

(2) Where the court below is of the opinion that the title to any property the subject of an order of restitution made on a conviction of a person before it is not in dispute, it, if it is of the opinion that such property or a sample or portion or facsimile representation thereof is reasonably necessary to be produced for use at the hearing of any appeal, shall give such direction to or impose such terms upon the person in whose favour the order of restitution is made, as it deems fit in order to secure the production of such sample, portion or facsimile representation for use at the hearing of any such appeal.

Abandonment of Appeal.

-(1) An Appellant at any time after he has duly served notice of Abandonment appeal or application for leave to appeal, or of application for extension of of Appeal time within which such notice shall be given, may abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment thereof to the Registrar, and upon such notice being given, the appeal shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Court. Notice of abandonment of an appeal shall be in Criminal Form 11 or 11A, as the case may be.

(2) Upon receipt of a notice of abandonment duly completed and signed or marked by the Appellant or the party authorised to sign notice under Rule 4 of this Order, the Registrar shall give notices thereof in Form 12 in the Second Schedule to the Respondent, the prison or military authority and the registrar of the cotut below, and in the case of an appeal against conviction involving a sentence of death, shall in like manner give notice to the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Defence (anyhow so called), for the information of the authority responsible for advising the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria on the exercise of the prerogative of mercy, and the Registrar shall also return to the Registrar of the court below any original documents and exhibits received from him.

Abandonment

(3) An Appellant who has abandoned his appeal may, in special cases, with the leave of the Court, withdraw his notice of abandonment by duly completing Form 13 or 13A, as the case may be, in the Second Schedule together with Form 7 (Notice of Application for extension of time within which to appeal) and sending them to the Registrar.

Procedure after Determination of Appeal.

-(1) Upon the final determination of any appeal or of any application to the Court, the Registrar shall give to the Appellant, if he is in custody and has not been present at such final determination, and to the Respondent and the prison or military authorities, notice of such determination in Form 18, 19, 20 or 21 in the Second Schedule, as the case may be.

(2) In any case of an appeal in relation to a conviction involving sentence of death, the Registrar shall on receiving the notice of appeal, send copies thereof to the administrative head of the appropriate Ministry or department of government for the information of the authority responsible for advising the President on the exercise of the prerogative of mercy, to the Respondent and to the prison or military authorities.

(3) The Registrar shall, upon the final determination of an appeal, notify in such manner as he thinks most convenient the registrar of the court below the decision of the Court in relation thereto, and also any orders or directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.

(4) The registrar of the court below shall on receiving the notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the records of such court.

(5) Upon the final determination of an appeal for the purpose of which the Registrar has obtained from the registrar of the court below any original depositions, exhibits; information, inquisition, plea or other documents, usually kept by the said registrar, or forming part of the record of the court below, the Registrar shall; where practicable, cause the same to be returned to the registrar of the court below.

Service of Record of Appeal.

-(1) Where there is a further appeal to the Supreme Court, the Registrar shall as soon as possible after the compilation of the Record of Appeal serve upon every Appellant who has duly given a notice of appeal and paid the fees fixed by the Registrar to cover the cost of Record of the Appeal, or whose fees have been waived in accordance with these Rules, a copy of the record.

(2) The Record of Appeal may be served upon the Appellant in any manner prescribed by these Rules for the service of notice or other documents relating to an appeal.

(3) The Registrar shall thereafter cause to be served upon every Respondent in the appeal who has filed an address for service a copy of the Record of Appeal.

(4) Within fourteen days after a Record has been served upon an Appellant, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that he has served the Record of Appeal upon every such Appellant. The certificate of service shall be in Criminal Form 22, or to like effect. (5) In addition to the requirements of any relevant provision of the Supreme Court Rules, the Registrar shall as soon as the record and notice of compilation of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court have been served on the Appellant and the Respondent, as the case may be, transmit to the Supreme Court a certificate that a copy of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court has been served on either or both parties in the Appeal thereto.

Savings and Transitional Provisions.

-(1) No pending appeal from the decision of a Court Martial or other Military Tribunal or the process or proceedings of the Court, wholly or in part, shall become incompetent merely on account of non-compliance with the provisions of this Order; but upon the Rules coming into force, all such appeals, processes or proceedings shall stand modified to conform with the Rules: Provided that on the coming into force of these Rules, all fresh appeals, processes and proceedings shall comply therewith. (2) In any situation where there are no provisions or no sufficient provisions in this Order on any matter, recourse could be had to any relevant provisions of the Court of Appeal Act or any Rules of Practice of the Court for the time being in force and same shall apply to the situation with such modifications that are necessary.

ORDER 19

BRIEFS OF ARGUMENT

Application.

1.

PART V

This Order shall apply to all appeals coming from any court or tribunal from which an appeal lies to this Court.

Filing of Appellant's Brief

2.

The Appellant shall within forty-five days of the receipt of the Record of Appeal from the court below file in the Court a written brief, being a succinct statement of his argument in the appeal.

Forms and Contents of a Brief.

(1) The brief, which may be settled by Counsel, shall contain an address or addresses for service and shall contain what are, in the Appellant's view, the issues arising in the appeal as well as amended or additional grounds of appeal.

(2) Where possible or necessary, the reasons in the brief shall also be supported by particulars of the titles, dates and pages of cases reported in the Law Reports or elsewhere including the summary of the decisions in such cases, which the parties propose to rely upon. Where it is necessary, reference shall also be made to relevant statutory instruments, lawbooks, and other legal journals.

(3) The parties shall assume that briefs will be read and considered in conjunction with the documents admitted in evidence as exhibits during the proceedings in the court below, and, wherever necessary, reference shall also be made to all relevant documents or exhibits on which they propose to rely in argument.

(4) All briefs shall be concluded with a numbered summary of the points to raise and the reasons upon which the argument is founded.

(5) Except to such extent as may be necessary to the development of the argument, briefs need not set out or summarise judgments of the lower court, nor set out statutory provisions, nor contain an account of the proceedings below nor of the facts of the case.

(6)(a) Except where the Court directs otherwise, every brief to be filed in the Court shall not exceed 35 (thirty five) pages.

(b) The brief must be prepared in 210mm by 297mm paper size (A4) and typed in clear typographic character. The typeset shall be in Arithmetic Times New Roman or Tahoma of 14 font size with at least single spaces between.

(c) Every brief which does not comply with the page limit and pages size requirements of this Order shall not be accepted by the Registry for filing

Filing of Respondent's Brief.

(1) The Respondent shall also within thirty days of the service of the brief for the Appellant on him file the Respondent's brief which shall be duly endorsed with an address or addresses for service.

(2) The Respondent's brief shall answer all material points of substance contained in the Appellant's brief and contain all points raised therein which the Respondent wishes to concede as well as reasons why the appeal ought be dismissed. It shall mutatis mutandis, also conform to Rule 3 (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of this Order.

Filing of Reply Brief.

(1) The Appellant may also, if necessary, within fourteen days of the service on him of the Respondent's brief, file and serve or cause to be served on the Respondent a reply brief which shall deal with all new points arising from the Respondent's brief.

(2) Except where the Court directs otherwise, every Reply brief to be filed in Court shall not exceed 15 (fifteen) pages, and shall conform with Rule 3 (2), (4), (5), (6 (b) and (c) of this Order.

Joint and Several Briefs.

All parties whose interests are identical or joint shall file joint briefs and separate briefs may be filed only by those parties whose interests are separate or are in conflict.

Cross Appeal or Respondent's Notice.

7.

A Respondent may, without leave, include arguments in respect of a cross-appeal or a Respondent's notice in his brief for the original appeal and the cross-appeal or Respondent's notice.

Number and Service of Documents.

Ten copies of all briefs in respect of the appeal and two copies of the electronic device used for the production of the briefs, duly and carefully preserved shall be filed in Court. All such copies shall be duly endorsed for service on the other side, which shall also be duly paid for by the party filing the same.

Oral Argument.

-(1) Oral argument will be allowed at the hearing of appeal to emphasize and clarify the written argument appearing in the briefs already filed in Court.
(2) The Appellant shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument. Where there is a cross-appeal or a Respondent's notice, the appeal and such cross-appeal or Respondent's notice shall be argued together with the appeal as one case and within the time allotted for one case, and the Court may, having regard to the nature of the appeal, inform the parties which one is to open and close the argument.
(3) Unless otherwise directed, fifteen minutes on each side will be allowed for argument.
(4) When an appeal is called and the parties have been duly served with the notice of hearing, but if any party or any Legal Practitioner appearing for him does not appear to present oral argument even though briefs have been filed by all the parties concerned in the appeal, the appeal will be treated as having been duly argued.

Consequences of Failure to File Brief.

-(1) Where an Appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided for in Rule 2 of this Order, or within the time as extended by the Court, the Respondent may apply to the Court for the appeal to be dismissed for want of prosecution. If the Respondent fails to file his brief, he will not be heard in oral argument. Where an Appellant fails to file a reply brief within the time specified in Rule 5, he shall be deemed to have conceded all the new points or issues arising from the Respondent's brief.

(2) Where an Appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided for in Rule 2 of this Order, or within the time as extended by the Court, the Court may suomotu dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution.

Accelerated Hearing.

The Court may, where it considers the circumstances of an appeal to be exceptional, or where the hearing of an appeal ought to be accelerated in the interest of justice, waive compliance with the provisions of this Order in so far as they relate to the preparation and filing of briefs of argument either wholly or in part or reduce the time limits specified in this Order, to such extent as the Court may deem reasonable in the circumstances of the case

JUDGMENT

Delivery of Judgment
1.

The judgment of the Court shall be pronounced in open court either on the hearing of the appeal or at any subsequent time of which notice shall be given by the Registrar to the parties to the appeal.

Notice to Counsel of Reserved Judgment.

Whenever a reserved judgment is to be given and the Counsel concerned are duly notified in that behalf the presence of such Counsel or their juniors is required in Court when judgment is being delivered. Failure to observe this will be regarded as an act of disrespect to the Court.

Enrolment of Judgment.
3.

-(1) Every judgment of the Court shall be embodied in an Order.
(2) A sealed or certified copy of the Order shall be sent by the Registrar to the court below.

(3) Interlocutory order shall be prepared in like manner.

Review of Judgment.

The Court shall not review any judgment once given and delivered by it, save to correct any clerical mistake or some error arising from any accidental slip or omission, or to vary the judgment or order so as to give effect to its meaning or intention. A judgment or order shall not be varied when it correctly represents what the Court decided nor shall the operative substantive part of it be varied and a different form substituted.

Enforcement of Judgment.

Any judgment given by the Court may be enforced by the Court or by the court below or by any other court, which has been seized of the matter, as the Court may direct.

Execution of Judgment by Lower Court.

When the Court directs any judgment to be enforced by another court a certificate under the seal of the Court and the hand of the Presiding Justice setting forth the judgment shall be transmitted by the Registrar to such other court, and the latter shall enforce such judgment in terms of the certificate.

7. Where the costs of an appeal are allowed, they may either be fixed by the Court at the time when the judgment is given or may be ordered to be taxed.

Notification of Judgment.

-(1) The Registrar at the final determination of an appeal shall notify in such manner as he thinks most convenient to the registrar of the court below, the decision of the Court in relation thereto, and also any orders or directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.

(2) The registrar of the court below shall on receiving the notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the records of such Court.

Final disposal of Exhibits, Documents, etc.

9.

Upon the final determination of an appeal for the purposes of which the Registrar has obtained, from the registrar of the court below any original depositions, exhibits, information, inquisition, plea or other documents usually kept by the said Registrar, or forming part of the record of the court below, the registrar, shall, where practicable, cause the same to be returned to the registrar of the court below.

Interlocutory Judgment not to prejudice Appeal.
10.

No interlocutory judgment or order from which there has been no appeal shall operate so as to bar or prejudice the Court from giving such decision upon the appeal as may seem just.

Power of Court to give any Judgment or Order 11.

-(1) The Court shall have power to give any judgment or make any order that ought to have been made, and to make such further order as the case may require including any order as to costs.

(2) The powers contained in sub-rule(1) of this Rule may be exercised by the Court, notwithstanding that the Appellant may have asked that part only of a decision may be reversed or varied, and may also be exercised in favour of all or any of the Respondents or parties, although such Respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the decision.

ORDER 21

MISCELLANEOUS

Records of Appeal from Customary and Sharia Courts of Appeal
1.

-(1) Records of Appeal from the Sharia Court of Appeal or the Customary Court of Appeal intended for use in the Court, shall be compiled in English language as well as the language used in the proceedings before the court.

(2) Ten certified true copies of the Record of Appeal in English language, two copies of the electronic device used for its production and three copies in the other language shall be forwarded to the Court.

Departure from Rules
2.

The Court may direct a departure from these Rules in anywhere this is required in the interest of justice.

Waiver of Noncompliance.

- (1) The Court may, in an exceptional circumstance, and where it considers it in the interest of justice so to do, waive compliance by the parties with these Rules or any part thereof.
- (2) Where there is such waiver of compliance with the Rules, the Court may, in such manner as it thinks right, direct the Appellant or the Respondent as the case may be, to remedy such non-compliance or may, notwithstanding, Order the appeal to proceed or give such directions as it considers necessary in the circumstance .
- (3) The Registrar shall forthwith notify the Appellant or the Respondent as the case may be of such order or directions given by the Court under this Rule where the Appellant or the Respondent was not present at the time when such order was made or directions were given.

List of Law Reports, Textbooks, etc.

As early as possible before the date set down for hearing of any appeal before the Court and in any event not later than two clear days before such date, all the parties or the Legal Practitioners representing them shall forward to the Registrar a list of the law reports, text books, and other authorities which parties or legal practitioners representing them intend to cite at the hearing of the appeal.

Application to Strike Out. etc.

- (1) An application to strike out or set aside for noncompliance with these Rules, or any other irregularity arising from the Rules of Practice and Procedure in this Court, any proceedings or any document, judgment or order therein shall only be entertained by the Court if it is made within a reasonable time and before the party applying has taken any fresh step after becoming aware of the irregularity.
- (2) An application under this Rule may be made by motion on notice and the grounds of objection must be stated therein.

Rules of Court Advisory Committee.

6.

- (1) There shall be constituted a body to be known as the Rules of Court Advisory Committee comprising of-
- (a) Not less than five Justices of the Court one of whom shall be the Chairman ; and
- (b) Not less than three members of the Bar to be appointed by the President.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the Committee to advise the President from time to time in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Constitution or by or under any law, to make Rules for regulation or making provision with respect to practice and procedure in the Court.
- (3) Every member of the Committee shall remain a member thereof for such period as the President may in his discretion prescribe, either at the time of the appointment of the member or at any time thereafter.
