(2) The death petitioner shall not affect his liability for the payment of costs previously incurred in the course of proceedings in respect of the election petition prior to its abatement.

(3) Where notice, with copies for each party to the election petition supported by the affidavit of two witnesses testifying to the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners, is given to the Secretary, he shall submit the notice to the Tribunal or Court and if the Tribunal or Court so directs, the Secretary shall-

- (a) serve notice thereof on the other parties to the petition;
- (b) post or cause to be posted a notice thereof on the Tribunal notice board; and
- (c) cause notice thereof to be published in conspicuous places in the constituency, in such form as the Tribunal or Court may direct.

33. (1) If before the hearing of an election petition, a respondent, other than the Electoral Officer, the Returning Officer or Presiding Officer, gives to the Tribunal or Court notice in writing signed by him or his Solicitor before the Secretary that he does not intend to oppose the election petition, Secretary shall-

- (a) serve notice thereof on the other parties to the election petition; and

- (b) post or cause to be posted a notice thereof on the Tribunal notice board.
- (2) The respondent shall file the notice with a copy for each other party to the election petition not less than six days before the day appointed for hearing of the election petition.
- (3) A respondent who has given notice of his intention not to oppose the election petition shall not appear or act as a party against the election petition in any proceeding on it, but the giving of the notice shall not of itself cause him to cease to be a respondent.

34. (1) Where a notice of-

- (a) the petitioner's intention to apply for leave to withdraw an election petition or
  - (b) the death of the sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners or
  - (c) the respondent's intention not to oppose an election petition, is received after notice of hearing of the election petition has been given, and before the hearing has begun, the Secretary shall forthwith countermand the notice of hearing.
- (2) The countermand shall be given in the same manner, and, as near as may be, as the notice of hearing.

35. Where the respondent has not entered an appearance, or has not filed his reply within the prescribed time or within such time as the Tribunal or Court may have allowed, or has given notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition, then if-

- (a) there remains no more than one other candidate in the election who 'vas not returned; or
- (b) the election petition contains no prayer for a determination that the election was void or
- (c) there are no facts or grounds stated in the election petition or in the reply, if any. or stated in any further particulars filed in the proceedings or otherwise appearing on proof of which it ought to be determined that the election was void or
- (d) the election petition is one complaining of undue return and claiming the seat or office for the candidate who was not returned and the respondent has not raised any formal or written objections to any of the votes relied on by the petitioner, the Tribunal or Court may, if it deems fit, determine the proceedings on the election petition without hearing evidence or further evidence, and in any case, the proceedings shall be continued and determined on such evidence or otherwise as the Tribunal or Court may deem necessary for the full and proper determination of the election petition.

36. (1) The fee payable on the presentation of an election petition shall not be less than N 1,000.00

- (2) A hearing fee shall be payable for the hearing at the rate of N40 per day of the hearing but not exceeding N2000 in all, but the Tribunal or Court may direct a different fee to be charged for any day of the hearing.
- (3) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, the petitioners shall make a deposit of not less than N200 at the time of presenting his petition.

- (4) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the fees payable in connection with an election petition shall be at the rate prescribed for civil proceedings in the Federal High Court.
  - (5) No fees shall be payable by the Attorney-General of the Federation (acting in person or through any other legal officer) or by a respondent who was the Commission or any of its officers appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Act.
  - (6) No fees shall be payable for the summoning of witnesses summoned by the Tribunal or Court at its own instance.
- 37. (1) All costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition and to the proceedings consequent thereon, with the exception of such as are otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the election petition in such manner and in such proportions as the Tribunal or Court may determine, regard being had to the disallowance of any costs, charges or expenses, which may in the opinion of the Tribunal or Court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegation or unfounded objection on the part of the petitioner or of the respondent, as the case may be; and the discouragement of any needless expenses by throwing the burden of defraying the expenses on the Party by whom it has been caused; whether that Party is or is not on the whole successful.
- (2) Where the Tribunal or Court declares an election to be void, it may, if satisfied that the invalidity was due either wholly or in part to the culpable default of an officer responsible for the conduct of the election in the performance of his duties imposed by this Act, order that the whole or part of the cost awarded to the successful petitioner be paid by that officer.
- 38. Money deposited as security shall, when no longer needed as security for costs, charges or expenses, be returned to the person in whose name it deposited or to the person entitled to receive it by order of the Tribunal or Court which may be made on motion after notice and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the Tribunal or Court may require.
- 39. (1) The Tribunal or Court may, on application made by a person to whom any costs, charges or expenses is payable, order it to be paid out of a deposit made to secure it, after notice to the party by or on whose behalf the deposit was made, requiring him to file a statement within a specified time whether he opposes the application and the ground of his opposition.
- (2) Where a dispute arises on an application under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, the Tribunal or Court shall afford every person affected by the dispute an opportunity of being heard and shall make such order there on as it may deem fit.
  - (3) A person shall be deemed to have been afforded the opportunity of being heard if notice of the appointed time for the inquiry into the dispute was given to him, though the person may not have been present at the making of the inquiry.
  - (4) A notice to be given to a person under this paragraph may be given by the Secretary handing him the notice or sending it to him by registered letter-
    - (a) in the case of a party, at the address for service
    - (b) in the case of an application for payment, at the address given in his application, so however, that the provisions of this sub-paragraph shall not preclude the giving of notice in any other manner in which notice may be given or which may be authorized by the Tribunal or Court.

(5) Execution may be levied under an order for payment made by the Tribunal or Court under this paragraph in the same manner and to the same extent as execution may be levied under judgment for the payment of money.

40. (1) On the hearing of an election petition, the Tribunal or Court may summon a person as a witness who appears to the Tribunal or Court to have been concerned in the election.

(2) The Tribunal or Court may examine a witness so summoned or any other person in the Tribunal or Court although the witness or person is not called and examined by a party to the election petition, and thereafter he may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner and the respondent.

(3) The expenses of a witness called by the Tribunal or Court at its own instance shall, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders, be deemed to be costs of the election petition and may, if the Tribunal or Court so directs, be paid in the first instance by the Secretary in the same way as State witness' expenses and recovered in such manner as the Tribunal or Court may direct.

(4) Where the Tribunal or Court summons a person as a witness under this paragraph, the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to the expenses of persons ordered to attend a hearing shall apply as if they were part of this paragraph.

(5) The Tribunal or Court shall-

(a) in make and carrying into effect an order for the production and inspection of documents used in the election;

(b) and in the examination of any witness who produces or will produce a document, ensure that the way in which the vote of a particular person has been given shall not be disclosed.

41. (1) A person called as a witness in a proceeding in the Tribunal or Court shall not be excused from answering a question relating to an offence or connected with an election on the grounds that the answer thereto may incriminate or tend to incriminate him, or on the ground of privilege.

(2) A witness who answer truly all questions which he is required by the Tribunal or Court to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Chairman or the Tribunal or Presiding Justice of the Court stating that the witness has so answered.

(3) An answer by a person to a question before the Tribunal or Court shall not, except in the case of a criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the answer, be admissible in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in evidence against him.

(4) When a person has received a certificate of indemnity in relation to an election and legal proceedings are at any time brought against him for an offence against the provisions of this Act, committed by him prior to the date of the certificate at or in relation to that election, the Tribunal or Court having cognizance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate, stay the proceeding, and may, at its discretion, award to that person such costs as he may have been put to in the proceeding.

42. At the hearing of an election petition complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat or office for a petitioner, the respondent may, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 12 of this Schedule, give evidence to prove that the election of the petitioner was undue in the same manner as if he were the person presenting the election petition complaining of the election.

43. (1) The Tribunal or Court shall have power, subject to the provisions of section 154 of this Act and paragraph 14 of this Schedule, to enlarge time for doing any act or taking any proceedings on such terms (if any) as the justice of the case may require except otherwise provided by any other provision of this Schedule.
- (2) An enlargement of time may be ordered although the application for the enlargement is not made until after the expiration of the time appointed or allowed.
- (3) When the time for delivering a pleading or document of filing any affidavit, answer or document, or doing anything or act is or has been fixed or limited by any of the sections, paragraphs or rules under or in pursuance of this Act or by a direction or an order of the Tribunal or Court, the costs of an application to extend the time, where allowed or of an order made thereon shall be borne by the party making the application unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.
- (4) Every application for enlargement or abridgement of time shall be supported by affidavit.
- (5) An application for abridgement of time may be ex parte, but the Tribunal or Court may require notice of the application to be given to the other parties to the election petition.
- (6) An application for enlargement of time shall be made by motion after notice to the other party to the election petition but the Tribunal or Court may, for good cause shown by affidavit or otherwise, dispense with the notice.
- (7) A copy of an order made for enlargement or abridgement of time shall be filed or delivered together with any document filed or delivered by virtue of the order.
44. (1) Where a summons, notice or document, other than a notice or document mentioned in subparagraph 1 of paragraph 7 of this Schedule, is required to be served on a person for a purpose connected with an election petition, it may be served by delivering it to the person or by leaving it at his last known place of abode in the constituency with any person there found who is a resident of the abode and appears to be 18 years of age or more.
- (2) After a party has given an address for service it shall be sufficient if, in lieu of serving him personally with a document intended for him, the document is served-
- (a) on the person appearing on the paper last filed on his behalf as his Solicitor wherever the person may be found or, if the person is not found at his office, on the clerk there apparently in charge ; or
- (b) on the person named as occupier in his address for service wherever the person may be found or, if the person is not found at the address, on-
- (i) the person there found apparently in charge, if such address is a place or business, or
- (ii) a person, other than a domestic servant, there found who is a resident of the address and appears to be 18 years of age or more.
- (3) A party may change his address for service by giving notice of his new address for service and its occupier to the Secretary and to each party to the election petition, but, until a notice is received by the Secretary, his old address for service shall continue to be his address for service.

- (4) Where service by one of the modes specified in this paragraph has proved impracticable, the Tribunal or Court may, on being satisfied, on an application supported by an affidavit showing what has been done, that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect service-
- (a) order that service be effected in any of the ways mentioned in the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to substituted service which service shall be sufficient; or
  - (b) dispense with service or notice as the Tribunal or Court deems fit.
45. Where two or more candidates may be made respondents to the same petition and their case may, but for all purposes (including the taking of security) the election petition shall be deemed to be a separate petition against each of the respondents.
46. Where two or more petitions are presented in relation to the same election or return, all the petitions shall be consolidated, considered and be dealt with as one petition unless the Tribunal or Court shall otherwise direct in order to do justice or an objection in line against one or more of the petitions has been held by the Tribunal or Court.
47. (1) Where an election petition complains of the conduct of an Electoral Officer; a Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or any other official of the Commission he shall for all purposes be deemed to be a respondent and joined in the election petition as a necessary party; but an Electoral Officer; a Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or any other official of the Commission shall not be at liberty to decline from opposing the petition except with the written consent of the Attorney-General of the Federation-
- (2) If consent is withheld by the Attorney -General under sub-paragraph (1) of this Paragraph the Government of the Federation shall indemnify the Electoral Officer; Presiding Officer; Returning Officer or such other official of the Commission against any costs which may be awarded against him by the Tribunal or Court in respect of the election petition.
- (3) Where the Commission, an Electoral Officer; a Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or any other official of the Commission has been joined as a respondent in an election petition, a Legal Officer of the Commission or a Legal Practitioner engaged by the Commission, or the Attorney -General of the State concerned (acting in Person or through any of his Legal Officers), or the Attorney General of the Federation (acting in person or through any of his Legal Officers) shall represent the Commission Electoral Officer, Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or other official of the Commission at the Tribunal or Court.
- (4) A private Legal Practitioner engaged by the Commission under sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph shall be entitled to be paid his professional fees and a legal officer so engaged shall be paid such honorarium as may be approved by the Commission.
48. In the absence of express provision in this Schedule, a party filing any document or process paper in connection with any step being taken in the proceedings of an election petition shall, unless the Secretary otherwise directs, leave with the Secretary copies of the document or process paper for service on each of the parties to the election petition in addition to three copies which the Secretary may preserve.
49. (1) Non-compliance with any of the provisions of this Schedule, or with a rule of practice for the time being operative, except otherwise stated or implied, shall not render any proceeding void, unless the Tribunal or Court so directs, but the proceeding may be set aside wholly or in part as irregular, or amended, or otherwise dealt with in such manner and on such terms as the Tribunal or Court may deems fit and just.

- (2).An application to set aside an election petition or a proceeding resulting there from for irregularity or for being a nullity, shall not be allowed unless made within a reasonable time and when the party making the application has not taken any fresh step in the proceedings after knowledge of the defect.
  - (3) An application to set aside an election petition or a proceeding pertaining thereto shall show clearly the legal grounds on which the application is based.
  - (4) An election petition Shall not be defeated by an objection as to form if it is possible at the time the objection is raised to remedy the defect either by way of amendment or as may be directed by the Tribunal or Court.
  - (5) An objection challenging the regularity or competence of an election petition shall be heard and determined before any further steps in the proceedings if the objection is brought immediately the defect on the face of the election petition is noticed.
- 50. Subject to the express provisions of this Act, the practice and procedure of the Tribunal or the Court in relation to an election petition shall be as nearly as possible, similar to the practice and procedure of the Federal High Court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction, and the Civil Procedure Rules shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to render them applicable having regard to the provisions of this Act, as if the petitioner and the respondent were respectively the plaintiff and the defendant in an ordinary civil action.
- 51. Subject to the provisions of this Act, an appeal to the Court of Appeal or to the Supreme Court shall be determined in accordance with the practice and procedure relating to appeals in the Court of Appeal or of the Supreme Court as the case may be regard being had to the need for urgency on electoral matters.
